9. Overdrafts without security or overdrafts against security not recognized by the Presidency Banks Act, 1876, shall not be allowed: provided that the Secretary and Treasurer may, in his discretion, allow any person who keeps an account with the Bank to overdraw such account to the extent of sums not exceeding at any one time Rs. 2,000 in the whole.

10. In no case whatever, without the sanction of the Board recorded in the weekly Proceedings, shall the Secretary commit the Bank to, or accede to any trust, assignment, or other arrangement by way of composition with insolvent or bankrupt debtors, or any deed whatsoever; but he may attend meetings of creditors with the sanction of the Daily Committee, or of any two of the Directors, and report progress to the Board.

11. No other suspense account shall be allowed to be opened at Head Office except the one suspense account in the Banking Department. A statement of the account shall be included in reports submitted weekly to the Directors by the Chief Accountant. At each Branch also only one such suspense account shall be allowed, and a detailed statement of it shall be forwarded monthly to Head Office.

12. There shall be paid, in respect of the transfer or transmission of any number of shares or amount of capital stock to the same person, a fee of one rupee per share or capital stock of equivalent value, and the same fee shall be paid on the renewal of any certificate worn out, defaced, or lost.

13. Every Director, Secretary and Treasurer, Auditor, Trustee, Member of a Committee, officer, servant, Agent, Accountant, or other person employed in the business of the Bank, shall, before entering upon his duties, sign a declaration pledging himself to observe a strict secrecy respecting all transactions of the Bank with its customers, and state of accounts with other Banks, firms, or individuals, and in all matters relating thereto; and shall by such declaration pledge himself not to reveal any of the matters which may come to his knowledge in the discharge of his duties, except when required or authorized so to do by the Board, or by any meeting, or by a court of law, and except so far as may be necessary in order to comply with any of the provisions of the Presidency Banks Act, 1876.
